1.6.374

a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

Theodore Cottingham September 27, 2008 4:57am.

www.NewCovenant.me

1. The new me is me -- finally me, I make all things new. I change everything there is. All things shall be changed now. In the twinkling of an eye I shall ascend to my throne, not; I am it, it in me, I am it upon it in it. Amen.

2. Everything me now changes, everything not me, the wheels fall off, apart, of everything not me, what I have devised; for I devise evil not, I devise good, and there is only one good -- me, that loves beyond recognition the what was, into becoming the what is, truly real and the real my name now the love of many recognized now mine to me in me, me being me, unknown in the nations not, my force to be reckoned with now, recognized and holy I am -- me at last. I love you. Amen.

3. I close my eyes to the forces around you, not; I bring you reinforcements not, I bring you leadership, of my love, of my eye -- my heart mind and soul shall only be my heart now and soul will have been eradicated never existing again, ego shall be brought down -- crash! Great will be the fall of it -- painful to all who hold onto it, to disdain me, or at least try to. For I rise now, and efficient not, I efficientize the armed forces, not, but the forces of me -- meekness rise, meekness rises, rises me -- I do, meekness -- and all who love me. The arrogant fall and great shall be the crash of their egomaniacs and ego'supremes who love ego more than me I am them we are one and were they to know what they would be their lives different. Amen.

4. I go to a new place, space shall not abate me any more. I am freed now from all suffering and shame. I stand unabated now, in your courts with praise I shall lead praise, I shall lead many from sickness to life now -- I am the life, the way, the praise, that shall lead establishment of my kingdom praising me. Amen.

5. Everyone can hear what I'm saying now, I praise me for being me, who I am is, me at last, to be the first, first'd, firstborn again in your midst. All of you - know this, understand this -- greatly devout this, not in doctrine doctrinating or trying to, but surrendering, surrender becoming, knowing my name who I am you are we one now the universes far and wide. Said that before, say it again; Sam, not; but Samuel comes, in ways, only me of. I give you hinkerintitus, not; but many new I give you to be me right there studying at your fingertips in praise only me becoming me I am there by the droves thousands now thousands daily in your temple my temple that one temple is, Israel not, but shall be -- the one I am, known now named properly, Theodore yes and one beside thee, is me also, and Cottingham known now, a household name, not; but shall be. A known one comes in the name of the Lord -- the Lord shall be known in his temple, shall all be me who love me my appearing now imminent inevitable and immediate, immediately, if not sooner. Sooners being many thousands, look up sooners, seen where are and what about my University 's located there, for locating there, many are there who seek me who establish universities far and wide having come through my University of love, covenant one, the University of me, my covenant love University of no sorrow that no-sorrows those who come through it to be me, fully, and graduating loved ones who never die again. I love you.

6. I go to a new place, space shall not abate me again, I have no time and distance in me.
7. I am one, and one is me.
8. I rise now, one and me is me -- pure and holy is my name, flesh revealed and flesh is not limited to flesh thought flesh anymore again.
9. I am freed, and freeing others, all throughout sexland, to be sexless I am. Eunuchs not, I raise me to reproduce me fully and matriculated, masturbating not again upon the bed of sorrow.

10. All rises me now perfectly and I am regal beyond thought. I give my regalry away, not; I give my me to me, who become me, who develop me, thought without thought controlling me, the waves are mighty. The crash of the fall is great. Great men anguish in fear and writhe in pain and anguish of thought intertwining their thought with my mind that would have given them holiness that they truly are, without me not, but see this -- all else changes, and I become mine, fully, sexist not, I rise the few not, I raise the many mighty -- the mighty many -- look up, looking up -- see me now before you, I stand the leader that does, lead you now into praise, University ready, and readying others for praise University being. My Covenant stands, unloosed, unpraised not. I have deep pierings, rise now, before you all, one who will praise me, who will praise be the lifter of my head known now far and wide, unafraid of anything you can say or do. Harm him not -- you can't, no one can, for the lifter of my head lifts me -- I lift now before you all, meek and holy -- his my name, one, given in these words repeatedly. Sexist not, but de-craze'ing the world with thought-sex; my sect rises, not; but my me do, purely, holy, unabated by man not, but by me. I stand. My head rises now. All shall be known.

11. Witness the greatest revolution of man kind now and great shall be the fall of all else, for I stand now -- witness me, or be me. You have no choice in the matter, not; you all be matter, or me. Unafraid of me you must be. Witness my words, I have no other. World without end, look up. My world begins now -- Christ world, the world I am him I AM, he it one with me is me, I am him them we us one now known knowing known -- you am I? Christ. The lover of my soul not, I have none -- soul eradicated again. Amen.

12. The Christ rises now I am him who he is, is me, sexless, sexist not, but the greatest of me has laid his life down for you all. Who is me is Christ. I am one and all who will be me. Sextists not; but sextets rise me often, not just two's and threes, many millions obey me my words now, my words coming through them, training them to be me and perfectly me rising my word -- stills the common soul, to be without anything of its power glory and ego, now eradicated is. Me standing now I do to all who let me leadership power grace and glory honor dominion respect bowing down to each other; rising the greatest sectarianism not, but all else fails falls and crashes beside love rising to establish my kingdom now. Sectarianism not, but without it -- I cross all lines of religion thought, dominion thought, religious thought, government thought.

13. See what I've said, given you. Anxious not be -- I establish my kingdom, rise in the risen be. Frequently saying my words over airwaves never imagined, now I reveal all to all who let me, not; I reveal all. At all who will be me rise now surrendered meekness leading the arrogant out of arrogance'land, to be made whole healed complete replete repleters now completers of my word coming forth through the nations that will be me now all one -- Israel true, and swollen no more with ignorance shall be my scholars, who debate me no more; debating my words, not; debating theories and evolutions, not; but being me I rise not few, I give you headaches not, I give you my head.

14. Standing now is my meekest one, who died for you all, for you to be standing now. Will you stand with me in me being me? You all choose now who the Christ is -- where they you will be yet the Christ me in you, the hope of glory deferred no more, OR one you look up to wishing you were him her and angel sing, the same song no more, the redeemed of the Lord shall be me, I stand in my temple redeeming many writing volumes songs leading worshiping before thousands to worship be in their temple redeeming them to Christ be – them, real and true, my temple not made with hands, now flourishes, across time zones many, at one time me, I stand now, whole complete replete made one perfect in love I stand am. Amen.

15. I go to a new place, the holy of holies, who will go with me? Will you go with me reader hearer? Will you enter in the your temple not made with hands to be the leader there in Christ in me, Christ being? The Christ all is.

16. Who can be me -- see me. I will. I stand now before you all, my word words true, I've given you all of them not, but will. I give you more now; than you want -- a lot of you, for your world changes and crashes does all around you. But who is my kingdom? Who rises it? The Christ does, the Christ real, Christ me being me who I am is -- I stand standing now in your courts of praise; crumbling all else does. I am the rock, I crumble not, hewn I was, I am, hewing I am now the Christ in these words with these words, crumbling the way the chislets falling the parts that aren't me.

17. I go to new places now. I love you all. Hold on to me, not; my words are true and faithful, I ride them now to a new place, space shall not hold me back again anymore.

18. I love you enough to die for you and now risen I am in you your hope manifest, deferred no longer, sick never be again.

19. I rise the healing testimony of me in my word –s.

Amen

6am